

Yoshiko Tsuda

津田 貴子

Mrs. Yoshiko Tsuda is an instructor for the Nishiura Style. She was first introduced to the Nishiura Style in 2014, and has been a diligent student in the art of incense ceremony, floral arrangement, and calligraphy.

Mrs. Tsuda took a renewed interest in Japanese culture after moving to the United States in 1996 with her husband and three children, beginning with taking lessons on the art of wearing a kimono.

Mrs. Tsuda is also a certified instructor of Jikyojutsu since 2011, a traditional Japanese exercise method, holding weekly in-person classes in McLean, VA, as well as online classes.

Previously in her prior professional career, she was an Associate Professor of Pharmaceutical Sciences at Hoshi University in Tokyo and holds a Doctorate in Pharmaceutical Sciences from the University of Tokyo.